[1] IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS [2] FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA [3] CRIMINAL TRIAL DIVISION	[1]	THE COURT : We are back on the record in
[3] CRIMINAL TRIAL DIVISION	[2]	our trial case. This is the case of Commonwealth
[4]	[3]	vs. Johnnie Simmons, CP-51-CR-00004773-2011.
[5] [6] COMMONWEALTH : CP-51-CR-0004773-2011	[4]	The defendant is here with his attorney,
:	[5]	Mr. Lorusso. The Commonwealth by Ms. Forchetti.
[7] V	[6]	Counsel, Mr. Simmons, we have yet another
[8] JOHNNIE SIMMONS	[7]	communication from the jury. It reads as follows:
[9]	[8]	Your Honor, we are deadlocked. Could His Honor
[10] Courtroom 802, Criminal Justice Center	[9]	please provide further guidance? Signed, Juror No.
[11]	[10]	8.
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania [12]	[11]	Mr. Lorusso, how would you have me
	[12]	respond?
[13] December 15, 2011	[13]	MR. LORUSSO: I would expect the Court
[14]	[14]	would reinstruct the jury with regards to the manner
[15]	[15]	of deliberation. I leave that to the Court's
Jury Trial 16]	[16]	discretion.
Volume VI	[17]	THE COURT: Ms. Forchetti?
17]	[18]	MS. FORCHETTI: Your Honor, I believe it
[18] [19] B E F O R E: THE HONORABLE SANDY L. V. BYRD, J.	[19]	would be appropriate at this time to give them what
[20]	[20]	we commonly refer to as the Spencer charge.
APPEARANCES: [21]	[21]	THE COURT: I'm in agreement. Let's
STACY FORCHETTI, ESQUIRE [22] Assistant District Attorney	[22]	bring them out.

However, the defendant, through his attorney, has asked for a mistrial and I shall grant his motion for a mistrial.  We're going to set this down for sentencing February the 10th.  Is that a good date?  MS. FORCHETTI: That's fine, Your Honor.  MR. LORUSSO: Is it, Your Honor.  MS. FORCHETTI: Your Honor, it will be the Commonwealth's motion at this time to revoke the defendant's bail.  THE COURT: Motion granted. I am going to  MS. FORCHETTI: If Your Honor would like to set a status date as to whether or not the Commonwealth will be requesting a new trial or if Your Honor would like us to announce it at sentencing.  THE COURT: We'll do that at sentencing.
